Dress Goods,—The Fourth Chapter

THIS is the fourth in a series of 24-hour bargains. It is a little greater in extent than the previous three, but will last no longer than they did.

This time French Wool Twills—you call them Whipcords—and a splendid quality. Five thousand yards to start the day with. The favorite weave of its class, in these shades:

- Two Grays, Two Castors, One Tan, Two Browns,
- One Reseda, Two Greens, Two Blues, and Black.

All are a full 46 inches in width, and the price is Fifty Cents a Yard.

The lowest price at which we have previously known this class of goods to retail is 85c. a yard. You know it best as dollar-a-yard quality.

And This, Of Women's Shoes

The advance guard of a lot of six thousand pairs of women's shoes is here this morning. Their arrival and their departure will prove to be news of the same day.

They will be Sold at $1.50 a Pair.

The offer can only get a bare announcement, when it deserves an epic. It is a bargain of bargains. For straightforward and honest merit-for-price, we have seldom been able to offer anything as good,—never anything better.

Shoes are complete from AA to E width, and from 2 1/2 to 7 length. They are made from a celebrated brand of Philadelphia chrome tanned kidskin, with oak-tanned leather soles. They are set in the cheap-stitched soles common at prices around the $2 mark, but have soles wadded and attached, with smooth inner soles. Same finish as in highest grades,—laced or buttoned.

Imported Wraps, Coats and Capes

Successful retailing is the inevitable outcome of an accurate foresight of the needs, tastes and wishes of the public. An instance here in these Velour Wraps. Months ago we foretold the high favor in which velours would be held. Great preparations were made. A great assortment is here. They are superb garments. The soft pile of the velour is a ground for rich effects in jet and applique braiding of which the French artist-designers have taken full advantage. We think this showing unequalled anywhere. $32 to $145. Many splendid specimens of the cloakmaker's skill and taste at prices between.

Somewhat less elaborate, but little less elegant, are these coats and capes of fine Kersey, all imported, and mostly in exclusive styles. Handsomely trimmed with braid and jet; some fur trimmed. $20 for the lowest priced, and by easy stages up to $140.

Men's Shoes

We are not sentimentalists in merchandising. We have no price-traditions. Neither has our shoe-man. He is a mercantile iconoclast, and no respecter of prices. A shoe-price is a maker's whim;—a simple shoe-price 'tis to him, and nothing more. That is why you find here so many "Six-dollar shoes" marked at five, so many "Five-dollar shoes" marked at $3.90, so many "Three-dollar shoes" selling at $3.

We hunt for the best first, and fix the price afterward. We have many reasons and opportunities to get it low enough, as you find on investigating a little. But, first of all, good shoes.

For instance, here's a shoe at $6.50 that you see in "exclusive shoe" marked at $12. It's the sort that costs anywhere from $10 to $15 made to order. All enamelled leather, made from a selected imported stock, lined throughout with chrome-tanned leather, made on the extreme flat last with double extension sole and flaring heel.

Here's another, at $5; try to match at $8 and learn something of our shoe-policy. It is as near water-proof as a shoe can be; made of tan kidskin, with double sole and heel, full leather lining. Sole and upper leather have been subjected to a water-proofing treatment.

Here's another, at $3; you've paid $3.50 and $4 for shoes that cost $2. A laced, one made of box calfskin, double sole, wet, new flat last. Lots of goodness and style for a little money.

Swiss Embroideries. Maker finished our order ahead of specified time, and shipped them at once. So we're somewhat early in our offering. These are so good, however, and so cheap, that you'll doubtless find the news of them interesting enough.

Men's Handkerchiefs. Twenty-five-cent sorts for 12 1/2c. We bought 150 dozen of these all-lined handkerchiefs most advantageously, and thus a retail price that represents half the usual value. These have borders in various colors and patterns, and hems of 1/2 in., 1 in. and 1 1/2 in.

With them are 75 dozen of the regular 15c. sorts that are to go at 10c. each. Speedway.

Blankets and Down Quilts

Never in better supply than now, and never prepared to offer better values. This, as an instance:

- At $2.25 pair—Large warm blankets; 70x80 in.; 5 lbs.
- At $3.50 pair—Fine quality well made white blankets; 70x80 in.; 5 lbs.
- At $4 pair—The "Physicians' Favorite;" pure wool filling on light cotton warp; 72x84 in.; 5 1/2 lbs.
- At $5 pair—The "Lansdowne;" pure wool, both warp and filling; 74x84 in.; 6 lbs.

DOWN QUILTS

Luxurious down quilts, covered with best American satin; pretty figured patterns on both sides, proof against shedding of down; 6 ft. square; $3.75 each.

Elderdown Sacques and Robes

Most of these warm, pretty, restful garments come in the desirable solid colors, though some are in neat striped patterns. They're tastefully made, showing new little touches in trimming here and there that add greatly to their attractiveness. Some of the sacques are only $1. In better qualities and in various styles and trimming up to $3.75.

The prices on robes begin at $3, and end at $9. Numerous styles at between-prices.

Excellent Cutlery Moderately Priced

This concerns a lot of new high-grade goods that have just been opened. It's an attractive and worthy gathering—dependable cutlery—and the prices below are made for quick selling to critical purchasers:

- At $1.75 and $2 pair—Stag handle carvers and forks.
- At $2.50 pair—Celluloid handle beef carver and fork; combination blade.
- At $3.75—Stainless silver handle bird carver and fork, in silk-lined case.
- At $5—Beef carving set, with stag handles and silver ferrules; silk-lined case.
- At $10.50—Beef carving set, with pearl handles and silver ferrules.

Shakespeare, Cervantes & Company

Do you realize that the plays of Shakespeare and the story of Don Quixote appeared in the same century and that during that century (the Seventeenth) Moliere, Dryden, Vondel, Izaak Walton, Racine, Peypis, Calderon, Corneille, Bunyan produced their immortal works?

One of the great advantages of reading the International Library of Famous Literature is that it impresses upon you unconsciously the time relations of the great writers all over the world. By an entirely unique arrangement the great modern masters of Romance are brought into play to picture to you the life and times during which the older literature was written. For examples, with the writings of the Seventeenth Century are interspersed stories of life and adventure during that century by Dumas, Scott, Kingsley, Bulwer, Blackmore, Clark Russell, Michelet and others.

Some of the world's greatest literature was written during this Seventeenth Century, as you will see by glancing through a partial list of authors represented in this part of the INTERNATIONAL:

- Cervantes
- Shakespeare
- John Flaminio (Mansoni)
- Christopher Marlowe
- Walter Raleigh
